

Branding Carbon360

Your Carbon360 - your logos and colours

However you want to use Carbon360, we will make sure that it fits seamlessly into your organisation.

Our talented design team will brand your reports, emails and entire system with your company colours and logo, making the whole experience feel user friendly and familiar for your employees.

It's the little things that make all the difference.
We'll even personalise your Carbon360 browser icon

Emails

Whatever your corporate style, our designers will brand your emails to match the rest of the system, making corresponding with participants feel like a natural part of your company's process.

Reports

We will tailor your instantly generated reports in your company colours so you can present employees with an individual report, in your own corporate style.
